

Taste of Honduras Honeymoon Package

7-Night Honduras Getaway

Honduras is a hauntingly beautiful and incredibly diverse country. Blessed with outstanding archaeological sites, heritage of the ancient Maya civilization. The endless tropical beaches and islands are perfectly positioned for scuba divers, island and beach lovers. Here you will find national parks and protected areas, pristine landscapes, cloud forests nestled high in the mountains. The vast Mosquitia region, a tropical rain forest comprised of primary rain forest, coastal mangroves, and pine Savannas, forms a significant part of the remaining biological corridor that once covered the Central American land bridge. An exciting, yet peaceful friendly region on the verge of touristic discovery.

This 7-night getaway provides you the opportunity to experience history, exuberant nature and total relaxation in a combination of 3 romantic places: Copan, La Ceiba and Roatan Island.

Noted for its artful details, and tranquil atmosphere, the Mayan Ruins at Copan will set the mood and charm you with its cobble stone streets, friendly locals and mystifying ruins. Complete your experience enjoying a candle light dinner at the charming and ever romantic Hacienda San Lucas, while you enjoy the sunset over the Copan Valley.

Continue your way and encounter nature at its best, as you visit the Lodge at Pico Bonito. Your small luxury category hotel will provide you with magnificent nature, natural pools, and daily bird concerts of every sort while surrounded by one of the most beautiful National Parks of Honduras. Finish of your trip at one of Honduras' best beaches at the renowned Roatan Island, and enjoy the picture perfect turquoise water and white sand, as well as the amazing underwater scenes with colorful fish and coral.

ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival- Transfer to Copán

You will be met at the airport and transferred to Copan. En route, learn about Mayan trade routes, social and political organization, and theories on their mysterious demise. Enjoy the beautiful countryside as you travel on to the picturesque village of Copán Ruins. Afternoon at leisure to enjoy the environment and atmosphere of Copán Ruins. Overnight Copan.

Day 2: Copán (B, D)

After breakfast, we will visit the legendary Archaeological Park of Copán Ruins, which consists of two main sites: the ruins and the sepulchers. Learn about the impressive 63-step stairway with over 2,500 hieroglyphs and masterfully carved Stella. In the afternoon we will visit a rustic, hillside archaeological site on the other side of the Copan River, called Los Sapos. Los Sapos means “the toads”, and when you arrive there your guide will point out to you the outlines of a couple of large toads, Los Sapos, carved into some boulders. They are thought to be fertility symbols for the Maya. To end this day you will have dinner at the Hacienda San Lucas overlooking Copan Valley. Overnight in Copan.

Day 3: Copán - Lancetilla - La Ceiba (B)

After breakfast we transfer to La Ceiba. En route, we visit Lancetilla Botanical Gardens. The United Fruit Company founded the gardens over 70 years ago as an experimental botanical site. Here you will find hardwood, medicinal and ornamental plants as well as tropical fruit trees from all over the world. You will see how the bamboo forest absorbs some 90% of the daylight, admire the long rows of majestic Royal Palms or try exotic fruits fresh from the tree. We continue on to La Ceiba. Your private guide bids farewell. Overnight at Pico Bonito Lodge.

Day 4: The Lodge at Pico Bonito (B)

The Lodge brings together elegant accommodation, rugged mountains and tropical nature. The lodge is set on the edges of the Pico Bonito National Park and is also set amongst coffee and cocoa plantations. This environment provides a great location for birding, hiking to one of the waterfalls enjoying nature or simply relaxing by the pool. Enjoy! Overnight The Lodge at Pico Bonito.

Day 5: La Ceiba - Roatán (B)

Midmorning, you will be transferred to La Ceiba airport for your domestic flight to Roatan in our beautiful Bay Islands. You will be met at the airport and transferred to your hotel. 3 Overnights Hotel Mayan Princess.

Day 6-7: Roatán (B)

Days left free to enjoy the fun and sun of Roatán. Some of the best beaches in Central America can be found on Roatán. Many additional activities can be organized for these days for instance snorkeling, diving, sea kayaking, water sports, biking or horse riding at an additional cost. Enjoy. Overnight in Roatán.

Day 8: Roatán - San Pedro Sula (B)

Morning flight from Roatán to San Pedro Sula in time to connect with your international departure flight. End of services.

Program Hotels: Hotel Marina Copán / Copán, Pico Bonito Lodge / La Ceiba, Mayan Princess Beach Resort / Roatán

Price: Starting from US$ 1,300 low season. Domestic flights have not been included in rate. These are subject to change and rate will be confirmed upon booking.
