LEGAL REQUIREMENTS

NOTICE OF INTENDED MARRIAGE FORM

- ❖ Notice of Intended Marriage Forms can now be obtained from the Internet at www.ag.gov.au/celebrants and click on Notice of Intended Marriage Form
- ❖ The form can be witnessed by a Notary Public
- ❖ The form is valid up until 18 months before the wedding day

It is still possible to obtain the form from the Australian Consulate and have it witnessed by an Australian consulate official.

If a party to an intended marriage cannot conveniently sign this Notice, the other party may sign and send it the Wedding Company in Australia. However, in this case, the party who has not signed the notice must sign it in the presence of the celebrant before the marriage is solemnized.

The Wedding Companies prefer to have this form at least 8 weeks before the wedding date. They strongly advise this form be sent to us by courier or registered mail.

PLEASE NOTE

Australian law requires the Celebrant must receive the completed form at least one month and one day before the wedding day.

PHOTO COPIES OF DOCUMENTS

Two copies each of both bride's & groom's passports, and if either has been married before, 2 copies of Decree Absolute or Death Certificate should accompany the Notice of Intended Marriage Form which is sent to the Wedding Companies.

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED IN AUSTRALIA

At the meeting with the celebrant before the wedding, the couple should bring:

- ❖ Passports
- ❖ Originals of Birth Certificates
- ❖ Original of either Decree Absolute or Death Certificate if either party has been married before
- ❖ Photo copies required as proof of ID: (1) Utility Account showing current residential address and (2) Credit or Account Card - one side only, not the side with signature. These photo copies are needed to accompany the application for Official Marriage Certificate.
- ❖ Original of Change of Name Document by Deed Poll if either party has changed their name.

THE 'OFFICIAL' MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE

The 'Official' Marriage Certificate' has a registration number and is held by the Registry of Births Deaths and Marriages in Australia. As part of the Wedding companies Service, they apply for a copy the 'Official' Marriage Certificate on behalf of the couple. The application must be accompanied by proof of ID as advised above.

Please note, the driver's license is no longer accepted as proof of ID.

CEREMONIAL MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE

The 'Ceremonial' Marriage Certificate is signed by the couple on the wedding day and is NOT a legal document. The legal document is the Official Marriage Certificate.

The Wedding Companies supply a Letter of Authority to be signed by the couple authorising the Wedding Companies to apply for the certificate on their behalf. When they receive the copy of the "Official Marriage Certificate" it is sent to the couple by registered mail. This process takes between 4 - 6 weeks. This service is provided by the Weddings Companies at no additional cost. The cost for additional copies of the Official Marriage Certificate is $77 per certificate.

AUTHENTICATION OF THE OFFICIAL MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE

Some countries (but not the UK) require authentication of the Official Marriage Certificate by the application of an Apostille Stamp. Each couple should check with the relevant authority in the home country & if required, The Wedding Companies will send the 'Official' Marriage Certificate to the Australian Department of Foreign Affairs to have the Apostille Stamp applied. The Wedding Companies we will then send the authenticated Certificate to the couple by registered mail. This process takes an additional 2 weeks. This service is provided by The Weddings Companies at no additional cost. If multiple certificates are required the additional cost for the Apostille Stamp is $110 per certificate.
